Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kaneko, US Patent 3,935,613. An apparatus for attaching a wheeled element to a surface of an object comprising a caster bracket (see figure 1, 2, and 4) with flange means (14, 40) for receiving a connecting plate 26 for said wheeled element, and a flexible member (16, 46) affixed to said caster bracket, said flexible member adapted to substantially immobilize said connecting plate when said flexible member engages a slot or edge of said connecting plate, said flexible member further comprising extension means (20,48) adapted for direct manual deflection of said flexible member from said slot or edge of said connecting plate and for release of said connecting plate from said caster bracket, said extension means having a length extending past the perimeter of said caster bracket. The flexible member comprises a locking surface for engaging an edge of a slot or peripheral edge of said connecting plate, and said extension means comprises a tab member for direct manual compression for release of said connecting plate. The combination is a kit.
